CHOICE PROPERTY, FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber, as Surviving Partner of the late Firm of C. & P. Mallett, and by virtue of the Last Will and Testament of the late Peter J. Mallett, will sell by Public Auction, at the Town House, on Friday the 3d day of December, all the

REAL ESTATE

Which belonged to that concern, consisting of 28 tracts or parcels of Wood Land, laid off in such manner as to be of easy access, and not exceeding one and a half miles from the Market House. This Land is unusually well timbered, and has been recently surveyed and marked out by Col. John Black, who has a map of the same, and will give information to any person desirous to purchase. A map may be seen also at my Counting Room on Hay street.

Also, that valuable Property, opposite the Lafayette Hotel, at present occupied by E. J. Hale and John S. Pearson.

Also, that commodious and conveniently situated Dwelling, next door to the Bank of the State, on Gillespie street.

Also, four unimproved Lots on Gillespie street, joining the property at present occupied by Joseph Arey. Esq. Cashmere Lots is a fine growth of native forest trees.

Also, an unimproved Lot in Campbellton.

Also, an improved Lot, opposite the residence of J. B. Hall.

Also, the Farm and Dwelling, situated on the South side of Mallett's Mill Pond, containing about 50 acres.

Also, about 20 acres, unimproved, on South side of the Mill Pond and East side of Gillespie street.

All these are removed from the town. I will at the same time and place, sell my late DWELLING on Hay Street which is pleasantly situated.

And also, those valuable SUMMER RESIDENCES at Cheraw, where are one of the finest Springs of pure Water in the State.

A liberal credit will be allowed on the said Property, the purchaser giving bond with satisfactory securities, bearing interest from the date.

RALEIGH, November 16.

THE DINNER TO MR. BADGER.

On Saturday last, was a splendid affair. About 3 o'clock, the Company assembled at the Episcopal School Buildings, where the Dinner had been served up in the finest style by Mrs. Stuart. The best feeling prevailed throughout, and each and all present gave a hearty welcome to him, who during the short time he continued in public life, did so much to elevate the character of his native State and to strengthen our glorious Union. We do not exaggerate, when we say that no man ever met with a more cordial reception from his fellow-citizens, than has Mr. Badger.

At the Dinner, Charles Manly, Esq. acted as President, assisted by Dr. S. J. Baker and Hon. John H. Bryan. Full justice having been done to the more solid part of the entertainment, the following sentiments were announced by the Toast-master, and drank with great enthusiasm. The hilarity and enjoyment of the occasion were greatly enhanced by some fine instrumental and vocal Music, cheerfully furnished by some of our Amateurs, on a spirited appeal from the President, invoking their services:

REGULAR TOASTS.

1. The memory of William Henry Harrison—the illustrious Patriot and Statesman.—British steadiness and backbone. Music, Rule Britannia.

2. Our country—our whole Country!—Music, Hail Columbia!

3. Our State, it has Land in store & Gold—Although we knew him, were we to say we loved him, others could have no charms for their sons or daughters.—Music, Wilt thou love me then?

After the cheering which greeted the announcement of the American Union of this Toast, had subsided, Mr. Badger arose and addressed the Company for about an hour, and concluded by offering the following sentiments:

North Carolina.—White in 1812.—Whig in 1840.—Whig in 1841.—She will stand prepared to vote Whig principles, whoever may desert them, or consign them to the recent tomb.

Having understood that a letter had just come to hand from Hon. Willie P. Mangum, it was loudly called for and read by R. W. Saunders, Esq. one of the Committee of Arrangements. It was addressed to Messrs. and Mr. Manly, and stated that it was impossible for him to be present. We cannot say, for certain, we can just guess, that it is full and explicit on the subject of the Whig principles, and the duty of every Whig in the State concerning them. Numerous were the calls for the reading of it.

North Carolina.—Faithful to her principles and to her friends—the Whig Party of North Carolina.

By R. W. Saunders.—The Whig Party of North Carolina—The first and last and constant object of the People's Regard.

By Dr. S. J. Baker.—Our Country—Her Whig Statesmen—Her Whig Presidents—Her Whig Congresses.—May they be as numerous as the stars in the firmament.

7th. Henry Clay.—[Great applause followed the announcement of this toast, and the band struck up a stirring air.]—Music, Hail to the Chief.

8th. The Constitution of the United States.—Administered in its true spirit—and cheerfully by the whole country.—Music, Hail Columbia.

12th. The Ladies.—Their prompt and voluntary withdrawal, to enable us to indulge in social conviviality and high festivity and patriotic sentiment which entitles them to the highest consideration from the Whig Party.—Music, Auld Lang Syne.

13th. The Press.—They were Whigs in the Revolution—they are Whigs still.—Music, The Ladies' march and chorus.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

The worthy President here called on for a sentiment, concluded, in his inimitable style of humor, that he had written a Toast, but on searching his pockets, it was not to be found. He feared, therefore, to substitute an Anecdote, which he had seen somewhere, and which struck him as having some application to the present relative position of Captain Tyler and the Whig party. "Two Irishmen, meeting in the Street, each recognizing, as he thought, an old acquaintance who had been long gone, they rushed simultaneously into each other's arms. Having been a warm embrace, they looked at each more steadily, and found they were perfect strangers to each other. 'Arrah, my jewel, said the elder Pat, here's a small bit of mistake—I thought it was you, and you thought it was me, but by the powers I find that it's neither of us!"

By Dr. S. J. Baker.—The memory of George Washington and James Madison. They each approved the Charter of a National Bank. The Constitution is worth that of all the Abolitionists of Virginia, and all the Nullifiers of South Carolina, put together.

By Hon. John H. Bryan.—The Judges of the Land—In times like these, great integrity, learning and ability are all required to protect the Constitution, alike from party madness and time-serving servility.

By Wm. F. Clark.—Home Manufactures—Liberally aided they will be a sure guarantee to the prosperity and independence of our State.

By Dr. W. H. McKee.—Hon. Kenneth Rayner—A Son of Republicanism; he has, with the club of Hercules, battered down the stout fields of Abolitionism.

By W. H. Holloway.—Our Calfins—We must put down their Ty-chinks, and rebuild them in the old-fashioned way, for they'll never suit the People 'till they are all dashed with Clay.

By Jos. John W. Lewis.—Henry Clay, of Kentucky—His enemies cannot detract from, nor has time added to his fame, but the People will have him for their next President.

By W. B. H. Tucker.—Badger, Gaston and Mangum—Five bright stars in the coronet of Carolina's glory. Like Cornelia she is proud of her jewels.

By Paul Cameron.—William A. Graham.—In years a youth, in head a man, in principle a patriot. In birth and loving a North Carolinian.

By B. Pegram.—Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures.—The three great pillars of National wealth, equal government protection to each, will ensure prosperity to all.

By John G. Moore.—Edward Stanly.—A wise man, not the man for a Wise.

By J. Mc. Bunter.—We, us, and all of us, may we ever be as ready to sacrifice self to public interest as was our late head Salt boiler of the late Cabinet.

By A. J. Lawrence.—The Home Squadron.—The sure defence of all our homes. We this day welcome its chieftain bold originator home.

By Doctor Pender, North Carolina.—The first in the great contest of 1840 to declare her adhesion to Whig principles—nor will be the last to desert them.

By H. F. Harris.—The indefatigable Edward Livingston, toiled more long years to make for himself a judicial code, and on the eve of its completion, the discounting elements robbed him of his treasure. On the next day he recommenced his task—let us return to ours—

While there is breath in our CLAY,
Let us not give up the day.

By D. A. Barnes.—The good Ship Constitution needs not the "conveyor and rakeing parcel," a nautical instrument invented by Henry A. Wise & Co. to conduct it to the haven of peace.

By C. C. Battle.—The framers of our Constitution were selected for their wisdom to provide the means to promote the general welfare," they constructed its powers and organized the Federal Legislature to make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying them into execution, and the failure of the latter to fulfil the constitutional duty, renders null and void that portion of wisdom of the framers.

By J. B. Love.—Health and prosperity to the United States of America.

By Dr. Beckwith.—The late President Harrison—The first Cabinet-maker of the age. He left no scratches.

By J. H. Manly.—With the acknowledged disunion of Martin Van Buren, the rallying point of the Democracy of North Carolina, and the incapacity to defend either—John Tyler is entitled to the rights of the United States, and forfeits the appellation of the pro tempore President.

By T. H. Sparrow.—The Hon. Geo. E. Badger—his Resignation"—It was to be hailed by the people of the Old North State as one of the proudest acts of his life.

By Jas. T. Litchford.—5th October, 1840—The voice which first sounded against the Young Hickory of North Carolina—it has ceased to be heard, but its echo is not lost—it still lives, in the hearts of the people, and when awakened will speak with its late energy.

By Wm. G. Nicks.—Gov. E. Burke—Whose patriotism and fine song in 1840 and 1841—No praise is great for such a soldier.

By E. M. Osborne.—Henry Clay—We know the Whig Party will not forget the services, nor lose the hope of the Statesman.

By Jas. Hogg.—The Whigs of seventy-six and the Whigs of forty-one—the principle is the same, they will not desert it.

By W. B. Gulley.—The Whig Party—Unbounded confidence in their principles, they are still ready to stand by the Banner of Liberty.

By E. B. Freeman.—Henry Clay—Peerless and unrivalled statesman, he is the Whig Star of the West.

By R. W. Haywood, Jr.—The Ladies—ever and the Navy—We [illegible] North Carolina [illegible] to the honor, happiness and glory of the Union.

By C. L. Hinton.—The Town of Newbern—She has ever been to the State more than a mother—a loving sister—ever distinguished and first, she is entitled to our gratitude.

By A. Williams.—The Whigs of the Union—Although they have had a temporary check to success in the States, yet they are not overcome—they will rise again triumphant, and arm themselves for the contest in 1844, when they will march under the banner of that great Patriot and Statesman Henry Clay, and again usher in the constitutional Presidency.

By W. J. Clos.—I feel rather [illegible] for President—A [illegible] Whig Convention [illegible] Whig Party.

By S. W. Watson.—[illegible]

By H. W. Miller.—[illegible]

By C. L. Hinton.—The Hon. Edward Stanly—The [illegible]

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1841.

HEALTH.—We have pleasure in saying, that sickness is greatly revived in this place within a few days. The sickness in the Lock country, remarkably dry weather, furnishing so much gathering crops, have contributed to the spreading of the fall fever.

GOV. M'NUTT'S SPEECH.—We refer to the Governor's Speech at the Raleigh Festival, to the admirable Speech of Mr. Badger's Speech at the Raleigh Festival, to every Whig in the State who has not yet seen it, and to the Governor's recommendation of a Convention, to read it and to carry it into effect.

We have not room at this time for the comments, or extracts, we know not which to select, of the Press of the country, upon the Governor's Speech. It is, indeed, a document which is likely to be a theme of discussion for years to come, as long as Liberty is dear to the people of North Carolina, whether for good or for evil, will be remembered.

SYNOD OF THE Presbyterian Church in North Carolina, held its sessions in this place, commencing on Thursday evening, the 18th inst. On Monday morning. We understand, 18 Ruling Elders, were present.

TO ENDURE DECLARATION.—Mr. Sparks, the able and indefatigable Editor of the North American Review, delivered, at New York, a course of Lectures on History, which have excited much attention. A critic in the Knickerbocker, speaking of this great Historian, says:

"Mr. Sparks is a gentleman of the New York Express, we
